

The Buccaneer

St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands

An American Caribbean Vacation with Kids – St. Croix’s Buccaneer Resort Offers Value Package, Luxury Accommodations

St. Croix’s Buccaneer Resort, the ideal locale for a Caribbean vacation with kids, is the longest-running resort in the Caribbean and one of its most family-friendly, according to both Caribbean Travel & Life and Forbes magazines. The resort is owned and managed by the granddaughter of the founders who opened the Buccaneer as an 11-room inn in 1947. The resort’s vacation choices for families include a value-laden package, and accommodations in either connecting oceanfront rooms, in a cottage exclusively reserved for families, in a new two-bedroom, three-bath suite that sets a new standard for tropical luxury, or a private Beach House with pool for larger families. Children four to 12 years old enjoy a complimentary Kids Camp, and family-friendly activities and amenities abound.

St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands (April 4, 2013) -- St. Croix’s Buccaneer resort unveils new choices for family vacationers interested in a Caribbean vacation with kids on the occasion of its 66th anniversary as the Caribbean’s longest-running resort. Owned and managed by the same family since 1947, the resort has unique expertise in meeting the preferences, needs and budgets of families of all sizes.

Options for family vacationers include a package featuring connecting oceanfront rooms, a car for the length of the stay, and a range of flexible accommodations: from a cottage exclusively reserved for families, to a new two-bedroom, three-bath suite that sets a new standard for tropical luxury. A Beach House that can accommodate up to 12 or more. A daily, complimentary Kids Camp for 4 to 12-year-olds creates a “separate but equal” resort experience for kids.

The value-oriented "Family" package, one of the Buccaneer’s “Legends & Luxury” collection of packages, offers two connecting oceanfront rooms with private patios, a car rental for the entire stay, and a welcome amenity. The four-night package accommodates a family of five (maximum three adults) and is priced at $3,970 from April 16 to December 16, 2013.

Another popular choice for families is a charming two-bedroom, one-bath Family Cottage, offering privacy, value and a convenient location between the Great House and beaches. Each cottage has a patio that fronts a spacious lawn and sea views. The master bedroom features a king bed and twin window seat, and a second bedroom offers two twin beds (one a trundle). From April 16 to December 16, a Family Cottage is $443 per night, accommodating a maximum of two adults and three children. This rate includes full breakfast daily, kids camp and internet.

A luxury choice for family accommodations is the Buccaneer’s two-bedroom, three bath Ficus Suite. Located steps from the beach with direct sea views, the expansive suite has been completely renovated: from its new marble floors to its new, vaulted wood ceilings. Designer-decorated, it features a full kitchen, combined dining and living room, a foyer/sitting area/sleeping area, wide balcony for dining and sunbathing, custom-created works of art and accessories, and widescreen panel TVs in every room. From April 16 to December 19, the Ficus Suite is $1388 per night, accommodating up to four adults and four children.

All families are offered complimentary daily Kids Camp for children 4 to 12 years old, featuring its own clubhouse, trained counselors, indoor and outdoor creative activities and lunches.

Guests of the Buccaneer also enjoy a complimentary breakfast buffet each morning, use of snorkels, kayaks and floating mats at the beach, scuba lessons, general manager’s cocktail reception (Tuesday), and a nature and history tour of the resort.

With just 138 rooms and suites, plus the Beach House, the Buccaneer offers the warm, personal service of a boutique hotel, yet is situated on 340 magnificent, beach-rimmed acres. Accommodations are located in the signature pink Great House, on two of three beaches, and on ridges overlooking the sea, gently-rolling golf greens and acclaimed tennis center. Two swimming pools, three restaurants, a renovated spa and fitness center, and a designer boutique enhance the ambiance of a self-contained destination resort.

The Buccaneer is recognized by the National Trust as a Historic Hotel of America, and is a partner in Stash Hotel Rewards, a rewards program offering free nights at independent hotels throughout the United States. For Buccaneer reservations call 800-255-3881 or visit <http://www.TheBuccaneer.com>.

